2. TRADING UPDATE

- Strong growth in most categories - in particular Slim-line TV, Games & Portable Audio.
 - Solid Christmas & post Christmas sales.
 - Due to overall growth of gift categories as a % of business, ie CD, DVD, Games, Portable Audio and Camera's, JB sales growth will have a bias to first half
 - Since Christmas, consumers have returned to previous spending habit of 2005 with slower discretionary spending.
 - 1st half comparative store growth was 7.1% for JB stores and -5.0% for CA stores (5.3% consolidated)
 - Move into Games very successful, already major player.
 - X Box 360 launch in March will help growth category
 - Play Station 3 later in year
 - Gross margin was stable after adjusting for impact of games (new category).
 - Opex as % of sales at 15.8% (PCP 15.7%) – pleasing result because of extra costs associated with new stores.
 - Opened 12 new JB Hi-Fi stores in first half which are all trading well.
 - Planning to open 6 new JB Hi-Fi stores in 2nd half.
 - Competitive climate continues to drive industry rationalisation
 - Megamart closure and Clive Peeters/Rick Hart merger
 - Continued closure of smaller electrical stores eg Betta and Retravisation members
 - Bigger players growing market share eg Harvey Norman, Dick Smith, Good Guys, JB Hi-Fi
 - Clive Anthonys traded well in December and January with air conditioners and computers strong.
